

Mechanical (HVAC/Plumbing) Engineer

BGW Architects II, PC (BGW), a national architectural firm located in Ogden, UT is seeking a full-time Mechanical (HVAC/Plumbing) Engineer join our team. BGW offers great benefits including: competitive wages, health insurance, vacation, 401k, Employee Stock Option Plan and other benefits.

REQUIRED TASKS

- Calculate HVAC and plumbing loads from architectural plans.
- Select equipment and fixtures.
- Layout and redline equipment, ductwork and piping for drafter.
- Review drawings for completeness.
- Coordinate drawings with electrical engineer and architect.
- Prepare mechanical and plumbing specifications.
- Stamp and seal drawings for permit submittal.
- Perform construction administration such as answering RFIs and shop drawing submittals and on-site inspections.

WELL QUALIFIED CANDIDATES SHOULD HAVE THE FOLLOWING SKILLS:

- Licensed Mechanical Engineer capable of licensing in all states.
- Minimum 4 year Engineering degree.
- Attention to detail, organized, critical-thinker, math, technical and time-management skills.
- Ability to relate professionally, efficiently, and accurately to clients, builders, peers, and city officials via email, phone, and in person.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks at a time.
- Experience with ArchiCad software (Revit experience is acceptable).
- Experience with Apple Mac applications or ability to learn.

INTERESTED PARTIES: Send resume to Mike McIntosh, COO, at mmcintosh@bgwservices.com

BGW Architects II, PC is a firm that specializes in design and construction of Christian churches and schools nationwide. BGW has a network of partner contractors across the U.S. and provides a complete, turn-key solution for ministries that also includes expert support in the areas of fundraising, financially sustainable building solutions, leadership coaching, manufacturer-direct building supplies & furnishings, worship technology and more. For more information about BGW, visit www.bgwservices.com.